Directions

Ride starts from Headley village in a field off Church Lane. It is almost opposite a bridlepath which leads to the Mid Surrey pony club field.

From Reigate – A217 north bound to Tadworth roundabout (with traffic lights). Take the B2032 – Dorking Road. Follow for around 2.5 miles until right turn onto B2033 – Headley Common Road signposted to Headley and Leatherhead. Stay on the road until you enter Headley village. The start field is located on the left just before Headley village stores and the Cock Inn.

From Banstead – A217 south bound until Tadworth roundabout (with traffic lights). Take the B2032 – Dorking Road. Follow for around 2.5 miles until right turn onto B2033 – Headley Common Road signposted to Headley and Leatherhead. Stay on the road until you enter Headley village. The start field is located on the left just before Headley village stores and the Cock Inn.

From Leatherhead – Turn off the A24 at the Beaverbrook roundabout onto the B2033 towards Headley. Proceed for about 1.7 miles. The road then becomes steeper and narrow for larger vehicles – take care. Less than half a mile later you will reach a T junction. Turn left along Church Lane. After entering Headley village the start field is located on the left just before Headley village stores and the Cock Inn.
